

ADMINISTRATIVE WITHDRAWAL

Students are administratively withdrawn from courses that are canceled by the University.

Canceled courses are deleted from the student's record and tuition charges reversed, if appropriate. Students are notified of the cancellation by the college, school or department responsible for offering, and subsequently canceling, the course.