

CONCURRENT ENROLLMENT

Concurrent enrollment, defined as taking courses for credit at the University of Denver and, at the same time, at another institution, is generally not permitted. In order to be concurrently enrolled at another institution, students must successfully petition the Office of Graduate Education and include their reasoning for pursuing concurrent enrollment.