

CONTINUOUS ENROLLMENT (CENR)

CENR 4500 Continuous Enrollment-Master P (4 Credits)

CENR 4600 Continuous Enrollment-Master (8 Credits)

Continuous Enrollment 4600 registration permits graduate students to maintain full-time status with the University and to use University resources; including library, e-mail, lab access, student health insurance, and reduced rates at the Coors Fitness Center. It is only for students who have completed all their course work and is allowed only when a student is pursuing full-time academic work/research necessary to complete a degree. Permission to enroll for Continuous Enrollment is granted for up to one academic year beginning in the fall quarter. Students requiring CE must complete and submit the proper permission form prior to registration. CENR 4600 is for master's level and EdS students, including those with approved time extensions for completion of their degrees and who are eligible for financial aid.

CENR 4700 Continuous Enrollment-MAext (0 Credits)

Continuous Enrollment 4700 registration permits graduate students to maintain active status with the University and to use university resources; including library, e-mail, lab access, student health insurance, and reduced rates at the Coors Fitness Center. It is only for students who have completed all their course work and is allowed only when a student is pursuing academic work/research necessary to complete a degree. Permission to enroll for Continuous Enrollment is granted for up to one academic year beginning in the fall quarter. Students requiring CE must complete and submit the proper permission form prior to registration. CENR 4700 is for master's level and EdS students who have an approved extension of time for completion of their degree program, but who are no longer eligible for financial aid because they are past the 7-year master's level (6 years for MSW), or 8-year EdS financial aid eligibility limit. CENR 4700 shows as 0 credit hours and does not confer loan eligibility or loan deferment.

CENR 5600 Continuous Enrollment-PhD (8 Credits)

Continuous Enrollment 5600 registration permits graduate students to maintain full-time status with the University and to use university resources; including library, e-mail, lab access, student health insurance, and reduced rates at the Coors Fitness Center. It is only for students who have completed all their course work and is allowed only when a student is pursuing full-time academic work/research necessary to complete a degree. Permission to enroll for Continuous Enrollment is granted for up to one academic year beginning in the fall quarter. Students requiring CE must complete and submit the proper permission form prior to registration. CENR 5600 is for doctoral level students, including those with approved time extensions for completion of their degrees and who are eligible for financial aid.

CENR 5700 Continuous Enrollment-PhDext (0 Credits)

Continuous Enrollment 5700 registration permits graduate students to maintain active status with the University and to use university resources; including library, e-mail, lab access, student health insurance, and reduced rates at the Coors Fitness Center. It is only for students who have completed all their course work and is allowed only when a student is pursuing academic work/research necessary to complete a degree. Permission to enroll for Continuous Enrollment is granted for up to one academic year beginning in the fall quarter. Students requiring CE must complete and submit the proper permission form prior to registration. CENR 5700 is for doctoral level students who have an approved extension of time for completion of their degree program, but who are no longer eligible for financial aid because they are past the 10-year financial aid eligibility limit. CENR 5700 shows as 0 credit hours and does not confer loan eligibility or loan deferment.