

REPORTING GRADES

Grades must be reported for all registered students by the grade submission deadline. For federal financial aid purposes, non-reported grades may be considered as failing. This can result in financial obligations for the student.