The Higher Education Department mission is three-fold:

1. Prepare social justice professionals for careers in postsecondary education related to administration, policy, teaching and research, as well as careers in public and private agencies of higher education, for-profit and not-for-profit settings, and in a multicultural and changing world
2. Conduct equity-based research about persistent and/or timely problems facing postsecondary education
3. Provide meaningful service to the University of Denver and broader Colorado community in matters pertaining to postsecondary education, especially related to equity, diversity and social justice

The Higher Education Department (HED) is an “Inclusive Excellence Unit” (www.aacu.org) and supports the concept that inclusiveness and excellence are one and the same. That is, students and instructors from diverse social and cultural backgrounds who become part of the department all bring unique gifts, talents and experiences that make tremendous contributions to the teaching and learning climate of the Higher Education Department.

Doctor of Philosophy in Higher Education

Students in the 90-credit Doctor of Philosophy degree in Higher Education gain knowledge through coursework. Competence is demonstrated by the successful completion and oral defense of a doctoral comprehensive exam, and the successful oral defense and publication of a dissertation.

Doctor of Education in Higher Education

Students in the 65-credit Doctor of Education degree in Higher Education gain knowledge through coursework. Competence is demonstrated by the successful completion and oral defense of a doctoral comprehensive exam, and the successful oral defense of a major research project.

Master of Arts in Higher Education

The 50 credit HED Master’s program is designed to prepare professionals for administrative, leadership, student-centered, and/or policy-focused careers in postsecondary institutions, private and public agencies of higher education, and other educational settings. This generalist program enables students to explore the academic and practitioner-oriented issues related to postsecondary settings and to expand their experiential awareness through practical activities in administration, policy, and research. Elective coursework allows students to complete an optional emphasis in one of three areas: College Student Affairs, Diversity and Higher Learning, or Public Policy and Organizational Change. The final degree requirement is the successful completion of a capstone portfolio.

Accreditation

The University of Denver is accredited as a doctoral degree-granting institution by the Higher Learning Commission (HLC) of the North Central Association (NCA), which is one of six regional educational accrediting bodies recognized by the federal government. The HLC covers a nineteen state (mostly western and Midwestern) area, and over 1,000 institutions of higher learning hold membership in the Association. DU received its first accreditation in 1914 and has maintained accreditation since that time.

Last HLC accreditation visit: 2010
Next HLC accreditation visit: 2021

Master of Arts in Higher Education

Following are the simple steps to apply for graduate study in Higher Education at the University of Denver. If you have any questions about the process, please contact the Office of Graduate Studies.

Apply Online / Application Deadlines

- Applications for graduate study at the University of Denver must be submitted online. Apply online (https://gradadmissions.du.edu/apply).
- All online materials must be received, and all supplemental materials including transcripts must be on file in the Office of Graduate Studies, by the program’s stated deadline: Priority Deadline: January 16, 2016 for Fall 2016 Admit. The program will review well-qualified applicants after the deadline until the remaining space has been filled.
- A $65 non-refundable application fee is required for an application to be processed. Application fee waivers are available for McNair Scholars.
Course and Degree Prerequisites and Requirements
- Applicants must earn and submit proof of earning the equivalent of a baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution prior to beginning graduate coursework at DU.

Transcripts (link)
- Applicants are required to submit an official transcript from each post-secondary institution they have attended, or are presently attending, where two quarter hours (or one semester hour) or more were completed including study abroad and college coursework completed in high school.

- The applicant is responsible for obtaining all transcripts. Applicants who have earned a degree outside the U.S. must submit transcripts accompanied by certified English translations, if not normally issued in English. DU students and alumni do not need to provide DU transcripts.

- Official study abroad transcripts are required unless the course titles, grades and credit earned abroad appear on another transcript. Transcripts from outside of the U.S. are evaluated by the Office of International Student Admission. This process can take three to four weeks and must be complete by the program’s stated deadline. Therefore, applicants with a degree from outside of the U.S. are encouraged to apply early. Applicants educated outside the U.S. are encouraged to contact the Office of Graduate Studies for assistance regarding transcript-related materials.

- The University of Denver will consider electronic transcripts official from a domestic institution provided by the following approved agencies: Army/American Council on Education Registry Transcript System (AARTS); Docufide/Parchment; National Student Clearinghouse; Naviance; Royall and Company; and, Scrip-Safe. Electronic transcripts should be sent to gradinfo@du.edu.

- Mail official transcripts to:
  University of Denver
  Office of Graduate Studies

  2199 S. University Blvd.
  Denver, CO 80208-4802

Language Proficiency (link)
- Official scores from the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or International English Language Testing System (IELTS) are required of all graduate applicants, regardless of citizenship status, whose native language is not English or who have been educated in countries where English is not the native language. Applications will not be processed until the required TOEFL or IELTS score is received. The TOEFL and IELTS scores are valid for two years from the test date. The minimum TOEFL score accepted by the University is 80 (iBT) or 550 (paper-based). The institution code for the University of Denver is 4842. The minimum IELTS score accepted by the University is 6.0. Graduate Teaching Assistants (GTAs) must demonstrate fluency in spoken English by scoring a 26 on the TOEFL speaking section or 8.0 on the IELTS speaking section. Please see the Graduate Policy Manual for complete English language proficiency requirements.

- Applicants may be exempted from English proficiency test requirements if by the time of matriculation they have earned a post-secondary degree from a formally-recognized/accredited university where the language of instruction and examination is English. Such applicants may be exempt from the TOEFL/IELTS requirement but not from other standardized graduate entrance examinations. There are no exemptions for graduate teaching assistants.

- Students whose native language is not English and who are required to submit TOEFL/IELTS scores will be assessed by the University of Denver English Language Center (ELC) prior to matriculation.

Test Scores (link)
- The Graduate Record Examination (GRE) is not required.

Courses

HED 3263 Sports and Higher Education (4 Credits)

This course provides an overview of the general history of college and university sports, athletics, intramurals, intramurals, and wellness programs as a broad introduction to this area; additional emphases center on issues related to intercollegiate sports e.g., athletic department positions, student-athlete support systems, ethical considerations, legal issues, politics and policies pertaining to institutional and NCAA norms/regulations, and current and future issues in collegiate athletics. Prerequisite: must be junior- or senior-level student.

HED 3264 Psychosocial Dimensions of Sports and Wellness (4 Credits)

Cross listed with HED 4264.

HED 3991 Independent Study (1-10 Credits)

HED 3992 Directed Study (1-10 Credits)

HED 4210 Critical Higher Education (4 Credits)

This course examines the social and political context of U.S. education and provides an analysis of schooling, cultural politics, and global influences that inform current practices and structures of the higher education system. Central to this course is the development of a critical understanding of topics related to meritocracy, stratification, diversity, and decentralization in higher education. Prerequisite: Ph.D. student in higher education or permission of instructor.
HED 4211 Current Issues in Higher Ed (4 Credits)
A study of contemporary higher education as a specialized field of inquiry and as a professional area in which to work. Explores institutional missions as well as entities such as administration, faculty, curriculum, and student, in relationship to current issues.

HED 4212 Introduction to Public Policy and Higher Education (4 Credits)
This is an introductory course that gives students an overview of federal and state public policy, current issues, research methods, and practical skills required for the policy formation process. This is the introductory seminar to the Public Policy, Leadership and Organizational Change emphasis area for the master’s program.

HED 4213 Leadership and Supervision (3 Credits)
General leadership theory and its implications for higher education; specific focus on leadership skills, such as conflict resolution, problem solving, use of teams and change advocacy.

HED 4214 History American Higher Ed (3 Credits)
Development of North American higher education from colonial times to the present, focusing on important educators and institutions. Primarily for doctoral students.

HED 4215 Curriculum Dev in Higher Ed (3 Credits)
The purpose of this course is to provide students with the knowledge and understanding of curriculum design, development, and change in higher education.

HED 4216 HED Research Processes (1-5 Credits)
Enables students to explore current research and theories associated with their scholarly interests and resources for doing research, and to address problems in conducting original inquiry and investigations in postsecondary education.
