Exceptions to Academic Policy

Exceptions

Petitions for Exception to Academic Policy

Undergraduate students seeking exceptions to academic policy at the University can obtain advising and instructions about completing a Petition for Exception to Academic Policy form from the Center for Academic and Career Development or, if he or she is a business major, from the Undergraduate Advising Center in the Daniels College of Business. Petitions involving exceptions must include appropriate supporting documentation. Exceptions to departmental major or minor requirements must be accompanied by supporting statements from the chairperson of the respective department. Instructions can be found online at www.du.edu/studentlife/advising.