

ADMISSION

Admission to the traditional bachelor's program and the bachelor of arts completion program are handled through separate offices and application processes. Requirements for both the traditional bachelor's and the bachelor of arts completion programs are outlined within this section.

Requirements for Entrance to Special Programs and Courses

Admission to the University does not automatically admit a student to certain courses, degree programs or specialized programs. Consult the appropriate program and course descriptions in this bulletin for details concerning special admission requirements.