ENGG 1010 Effective Writing Strategies (2 Credits)
This course focuses on developing the understanding and practice of the conventions of academic writing. This course emphasizes the use of Standard English grammar and usage; the mechanics of coherent, cohesive, and correct writing; and the basic steps of the writing process. Readings and discussions illuminate the characteristics of successful writing, which students practice as they develop a persuasive essay. No prerequisites. Course open to Colorado Women's College students only.
